

Westfield Valley Fair Mall

SAN JOSE, CALIFORNIA

YEAR	2014–2020
SIZE	2.6 acres
USE	Retail, outdoor dining terrace, green roofs, greenwalls, plazas, promenades, outdoor seating, gathering spaces

- + Extensive green roofs, green walls, and on-structure planting work in tandem with open plazas and intimate courts to frame the property's expanded Luxury Collection.
- + Open-air pedestrian promenades and outdoor lounges invite relaxation and socialization alongside a new dining district that showcases premier chefs and restaurateurs.
- + Following the opening of the dining terrace, a new 150,000 square foot, three-story flagship Bloomingdale's department store and ShowPlace ICON cinema will provide a movie-going experience unlike any other in northern California.

Westfield Valley Fair shopping mall is a luxury retail, dining, and cinema concept. Re-imagined as an upscale indoor/outdoor retail experience in the heart of Silicon Valley, the project provides an elevated retail experience that is foundational to the mall's $600 million expansion.

